

EAT Poems #14

Katherine Espano
THE SKY'S DUSTBIN

EAT POEMS #14

Tracks

- |                              |       |
|------------------------------|-------|
| 1. La Conchita               | 01:29 |
| 2. Glassmaking               | 01:27 |
| 3. The History of Writing    | 01:35 |
| 4. Mrs. Semilla's Nightgowns | 01:24 |
| 5. Fever                     | 01:08 |
| 6. Resonance                 | 01:38 |
| 7. In Miniature              | 01:04 |
| 8. Zero                      | 01:38 |
| 9. Hyphen Children           | 02:03 |
| 10. The Fish                 | 01:10 |

All poems by Katherine Espano and read by the author.

Katherine Espano is the author of The Sky's Dustbin, a poetry collection, and The Infinity Bloom, a novel. Her poems and short stories have appeared in literary magazines such as The Massachusetts Review, Lake Effect, Green Mountains Review, Spoon River Poetry Review, Sycamore Review, Jabberwock Review, and Karamu, among others. The Sky's Dustbin won the 2014 Bitter Oleander Press Library of Poetry Book Award, and one of her poems was nominated for a Pushcart Prize. She is also an artist in the We Are You Project, an organization dedicated to exploring Latino identity. She graduated with a BA from Carnegie Mellon University and an MFA from the University of Florida. She lives in Florida with her husband and two children.

Producer and Editor, Mark Ari

Assistant Producer, Dan Pike

Album cover design, April Gray Wilder

The poems on this album are from the collection, The Sky's Dustbin, published by The Bitter Oleander Press. The printed book with the entire collection can be purchased through common retailers or directly from the publisher: The Bitter Oleander Press, 4983 Tall Oaks Drive, Fayetteville, New York 13066-9776. www.bitteroleander.com.

© 2017 for the author.

By permission, EAT has the non-exclusive right to market these poems via electronic distribution and streaming. The author otherwise retains all rights.